

Addendum 1 To Hearing Tribunal Order Dated June 1, 2022 re: Dr. Curtis Wall

At the continuation of the hearing regarding Dr. Curtis Wall on June 16, 2022, counsel for Dr. Wall raised an issue with respect to the scope of the June 1, 2022 publication order. Specifically, counsel asked if the restriction on publishing the names of any witnesses, tribunal members or legal counsel would apply to the observers present at the hearing on June 16 and/or June 17, 2022.

The hearing panel adjourned the proceedings to review the purpose, scope and intention of the restriction on publication that was set out in the June 1, 2022 order.

The hearing panel considered that when the publication issue arose in March, 2022, the College had asked for a complete publication ban. In response, the panel determined that only the transcripts of the expert witnesses would be published on the express condition that the identification of the expert witnesses, the tribunal witnesses, the tribunal members and legal counsel be redacted from those transcripts. That order was made applicable to the parties to the hearing.

After deliberation, the hearing panel concluded that this order ought to also be applicable to any observers present during the continuation of the hearing on June 16 & 17, 2022, and this order will continue to apply until the panel issues its final award on the merits and, if applicable, any penalty phase regarding this hearing.
